

Plain language summaries (PLS) cover sheet to help patient reviewers

POWERING
PATIENT VOICES

This document provides the patient reviewer with key information about the draft PLS to provide context and facilitate the review process. It is designed to accompany a brief for the specific review task

1 General information

Type of information being summarised
Type of publication being summarised
PLS title
PLS author
Key sponsor(s)

2 Development and review process overview

Content and format	Content has been developed in accordance with the Plain Language Summaries Toolkit, co-created with patients (www.envisionthepatient.com/plstoolkit). Sponsor/journal PLS guidelines have also been followed (see below)
	The primary target audience for this PLS is patients. The content of this PLS accurately reflects the key results included in the associated scientific publication. Detailed data and complex analyses have not been included The full scientific content can be accessed here:
Incorporation of review comments	All review comments will be carefully considered and incorporated as appropriate and consistent with PLS best practices

3 Background information

Disease/condition being studied
Drug/device being studied
Approval status/stage of clinical development
Why is a PLS being developed for this content?
Has the lead author of the original scientific publication reviewed the PLS/been informed?
Has a patient been involved as an author?
Where will the PLS be archived/accessed (eg, QR code, journal website)?
Are there any specific publisher requirements to be considered?

4 Readability assessment

Was a valid readability tool used (eg, Readable)?
Readability tool used
Readability score*

* Please note that overall readability may be reduced by necessary technical terms included in the PLS

5 Suitability assessment

Was a valid document suitability tool used (eg, PEMAT, SAM)?
Suitability tool used
Suitability score

Sponsor/journal PLS guidelines followed: